A Bloody Prize Fight Under the Rules at New York.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

The National Capital.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—It is under stood that the policy of this administration with regard to the appointments to places in the southern states that are now held by colored Republicans will be not to substitute white men for the colored men, but to replace incompetent or dishonest colored Republicans with colored Democrats who are worthy and capable. In accordance, it is said with this policy, that the postmaster-general has just appointed ex-Representative Tom Hamilton, of Beaufort, route agent from Beaufort to Jacksonville, S. C. Hamilton was the leader of a small band of colored men who supported the Hampton government in South Carolina in 1876.

A Free Park Around Niagara Falls.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 16.—The Niagara reservation bill has passed the senate. It provides for a free park around Niagara Falls forever, and makes an appropriation for the purchase of the land.

When flowers have been carried a long distance in close boxes or cases they often appear withered and worthless, but with proper treatment they may be revived and restored to their original beauty. Instead of at once being put into vases and exposed to the hot, dry air of the parlor, they should be either spread out on wet flannel or moss, and covered with a dish cover or an inverted box, or else put in pans containing moss and water or wet sand, in which they can be set upright, and then shut up in the dark for a few hours. If they do not regain their freshness under this nursing, there is no hope for them; but in all ordinary cases their recovery is certain.

The wood parts of roller skates are made of boxwood, the same as that used in making wood engravings. Boxwood was never very plenty, and the roller-skate craze has sent its price away up out of reach of wood engravers, who are groaning and wishing the craze would abate or someone would discover a substitute for boxwood. Their business is seriously affected.

WAR ECHOES.

Earl Dufferin Informs the British Government Penjdeh is Not Worth a Fight.

The Afghans Retreat From Their Frontier Posts Leaving Komaroff in Possession.

Sir Peter Lumsden Says the Russian General Violated an Explicit Peace Arrangement.

GIVEN IT UP.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

LONDON, April 17.—Earl Dufferin, viceroy of India, in a dispatch to the home government, said that in his opinion Penjdeh was not worth fighting for. The ameer has had for a long time very little control over the tribes in the vicinity. It is not announced that the cabinet has adopted the same view of the matter.

It appears that the above item originated in the Central news agency. This was the agency referred to in Earl Granville's statement in the house of lords last night in which he characterized the news as "unauthorized and always inaccurate in reports."

A TELEGRAM FROM KOMAROFF.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 17.—General Komaroff reports that the Afghans have evacuated all the frontier posts and the Russian outposts occupy their former positions.

THE STOCK MARKET.

LONDON, April 17.—Stocks are very firm. Consols advanced to 90½, and Russian securities to 87½.

4 p. m.—Consols 97½.

LUMSDEN'S SENSATIONAL STORY.

LONDON, April 17.—Gladstone, in the house of commons, stated that the government had to-day received a reply to their request for an independent report upon the Penjdeh incident. In this it is stated that General Komaroff was aware at as early a date as the 28th of March, of the understanding agreed upon March 17th, between Russia and England, by which Afghan and Russian troops were to remain as they were until some subsequent agreement about the Afghan frontier could be reached. The battle was fought therefore several days after General Komaroff knew of the agreement but it appears he kept his knowledge to himself. Mr. Gladstone said the government had not protested against the recent occurrence at Penjdeh to General Komaroff.

OLD WAR RELICS.

The See Yachetta's Hidden Treasures.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

QUEBEC, April 17.—Advices from Pointe Desmonts state that a number of cannons, some measuring ten and others four feet in length, were washed up near the shore at Pointe Aux Angles by the late great storm. These cannons are supposed to be relics of the disaster to the English fleet, which occurred nearly two hundred years ago, and from which Pointe Aux Angles derived its name. The discoveries of fire arms, swords and bayonets have been made in the locality, and efforts have been made from time to time to recover a large treasure supposed to have been lost there.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

LONDON, April 16.—Rt. Hon. Henri Campbell-Bannerman, chief secretary for Ireland, in reply to a question by Mr. Parnell, in the house of commons, as to the government's attitude concerning the attack by the police upon the Irish members of parliament at Malrow, during the visit of the Prince and Princess of Wales, said the government justified the police in what they did upon that occasion as warranted by circumstances. Mr. Parnell thereupon asked for a government inquiry under oath into the affair. The chief secretary promptly replied that the government declined to order any such inquiry.

DUBLIN, April 16.—The royal party arrived safely at Kilkenny this afternoon.

noon, and with the exception of some slight hissing were cordially greeted.

The "Standard" in an editorial says "we could tolerate delay in the negotiations if we were satisfied that behind all the dilatory pleas advanced there lay any fixed and sterling purpose; but we have no assurance that they are not a welcome screen to cover conscious feebleness."

PARIS, April 16.—M. Clamageron has resigned the ministry of finance. It is believed that this action is due to his inability to agree with his colleagues in the cabinet on the questions of finance. General De Plessie, in a telegram from Hanoi, dated April 15, says that he sent envoys to notify the Chinese of the cessation of hostilities, but before the envoys were able to deliver the notice 2,000 Chinese troops, unaware of the conclusion of peace, attacked Kép on the 14th inst. and were repulsed beyond the Racte. The French loss was one killed and seven wounded.

In a dispatch from Pescadores, dated April 12, Admiral Courbet says, that the Chinese vessel captured by the D'Estaing is a wooden ship, named "Ping-pong," and is of no great value. The vessel was conveying official Chinese dispatches from Formosa to mainland, which were thrown overboard before the vessels were captured.

BERLIN, April 16.—Walter Van Goethe, the last descendant of the late great German poet, has just died at Leipzig.

T. S. Heller, the county recorder, this morning received a telegram announcing the death of E. D. Dague, at Danville, Ill. Mr. Dague was formerly in business with Mr. Heller at Monroeville, and was also interested in stove factories at New Haven and Decatur. He leaves a wife and four children, and was well known here. His funeral occurs at Danville Sunday.

The Supreme Court Commissioners.

The terms of the judges constituting the supreme court commission will expire April 27. The members of the commission are Judges George A. Bicknell, of New Albany; William M. Franklin, of Spencer; J. I. Best, of Waterloo; W. G. Colerick, of Fort Wayne, and James B. Black, of Indianapolis. The establishment of the commission has increased the business of the court, and the expiration of the time for which they were established will cut off about two-fifths of the business in the future. The court is now 650 cases behind. The work of the commissioners being stopped, it is estimated that 400 or five hundred more cases will be filed during the coming year than the five regular judges can decide. The legislature having failed to establish the proposed appellate court, it is estimated that there will be at least 1,000 undecided cases on the docket in one year from now. The commissioners received $1,000 per year.
